

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM A
RHYTHM 'N'
RUACH TEACHER
TRAINING

When you join our two day, live Rhythm ‘n’ Ruach teacher training workshop, you will experience a combination of philosophy and practice in a relaxed, supportive atmosphere. During the workshop, you'll experience how children learn music and how you can apply it to lesson-planning and song-leading. You will also observe two live demonstration classes—One mixed-age parent/child class and one pre-school class, so that you can see exactly how we put Rhythm ‘n’ Ruach into practice. We keep the numbers of trainees limited, allowing each participant to get personal attention and immediate feedback from the trainer. It is imperative for the success and integrity of Rhythm ‘n’ Ruach that new trainees finish the training confident, prepared, and ready to run with all of the tools and opportunities provided through Rhythm ‘n’ Ruach!

During the live, two-day Rhythm ‘n’ Ruach Training Workshop, you'll be shown a whole new way of thinking about music and children. You can expect to learn:

- About our philosophy and how research supports our curriculum
- About children's music development and how to support it
- A new repertoire of songs, rhythmic chants, and musical activities
- How to plan and implement the Rhythm ‘n’ Ruach collections
- How to manage a Rhythm ‘n’ Ruach environment
- How to communicate information to parents and caregivers

You'll also:

- Observe two live demonstration classes taught by experienced teachers
- Practice leading songs and movement activities
- Receive the trainers’ personal attention, coaching, and feedback

- Meet and have fun with others who love children and music

At the completion of the training you will receive some take-home materials, too! Trainees are given one of the twelve collections, a Rhythm 'n' Ruach signature tie dye floor covering, a one year license, on line support with webinars, teacher groups, and continued teacher training, and a teacher training manual to help put what they learn into practice.
